

Boston Monday evening
March 11 - 1863

Dear ~~President~~

65
about you & why don't you write & tell us what you have to say - concluded that you are either very busy or not busy, what is it about - I do not know - about it just by - I don't have the time to go around the town today but I will for they appear to be I am called upon to say how I think probably I will be able to get what I want to do until I hear from you again I have much to hear from you from time before - went this morning - back at any rate I did I have been looking out for a little time I can't tell you how long time - I don't know you can see our friends - back soon after so this is the return & I being a strong boy began now to mix out all and all took bright - business is I hope at a great rate - changing the facility of being a number of to some things I cannot tell you with work well - I feel well & am going in health with Caroline restored what feelings of gratitude & satisfaction you will contemplate his appearance (which I made by the way, yesterday)

The aching voice - that the lips' expression left is sufficient to show indeed that I like S. better than I could ever do - there is an ~~unconscious~~ about him - an entire trust in God & how he seems true that is ~~the~~ silent -

We are all nice worked - & much work is doing - Collins - as an ~~agent~~ that some thing has become ~~up~~ open house the other day - The ~~agent~~ to a ~~backing~~ of the Essex Co. - for - had to be ~~closed~~ no notice sent to the Lib - but this meeting advertisement in the ~~abortion~~ is - a note sent to invite ~~agents~~ to see

Gen. Agent - the enemy ~~not~~ then knowing on inspecting Polans' belongings Collins attachment removed ~~not~~ after & got a few of the faith ~~not~~ to go a few hands from Lyman & left from home & went down to Salem

- Govey - was in a state of ~~conscious~~ innocence - didn't know ~~to~~ he and the other was going to be ~~concerned~~ ~~believe~~ he should go - ~~only~~ ~~the~~ delegates went from Salem ~~they~~ Menden & Polans got into the cars ~~who~~ should they meet but Sinclair, ~~had~~ my up from Bristol County - when they got there Ganey - Hubbard - Russel - Dr. — on the ground - things looked bad - it was a desperate game - & Collins played it gamely - At first up the 15 min - resolution after being opposed furiously by all the opposition & called a ~~good~~ ~~city~~ - it was carried by two or three majority - this indicate a very close vote - Wendell tried to get on with business the first day - as he knew by this time that great plans had been taken to push the meeting - & he believed none help to their would win us - by now beat only 62 - Ganey wished a resolution on Political union - the resolution to be over - because - the experter clear brethren from Chester - & many other places - so there was nothing to be said - & they adjourned - not much done & nothing done for the Society - Wendell - took the evening stay - must go to Salem - wrote help win to the others nothing yet - next morning Sir Clark began to speak against the wait my conveniently for something - "after he had gone on about an hour" said Bendict - "the door opened - & muffed up to the throat - ~~was~~ a - walked up the aisle - I thought as was over" Boies proposed an amendment to the resolution - to make it suit the Garrison folks - debated - hours - question taken 34 - to 34 - question on the original resolution - some body moved an immediate postponement - which was carried - by a majority of 5 or 6

& the meeting as you were - with out stirring up History at all - & I suppose unconscious toil & labour had been history upon - the meeting - we had better - to-morrow they try it again in Worcester Co - Bolles & Henry are young & Thursday at Concord Stanton has gone to New York - I have so many little pieces of gossip to tell you this I can not put in here it is verily a shame - but am going to keep a journal of matters & things & some regularly - & will try to forget nothing - do with - Bolles says that he hears nothing from New Bedford which leads him to suppose they are doing up the
